

Living in Cambridge

Cambridge is a _____ city. You can see some _____ sights and visit some _____ parks.

There is a wonderful College Chapel called _____ College Chapel; the choir perform there regularly, particularly at Christmas when they are _____ television.

There are some great places to shop but the prices are more _____ in the Grand Arcade than in the Grafton Centre.

The river is called the _____ and you can go punting with friends or family. However, it is really busy in the summer months, so plan your trip carefully. Punting is great fun unless you _____ into the murky water! That's not funny!

One of the most famous poets who lived and worked in Cambridge was Rupert Brooke. Prince Charles and Prince Edward also lived here when they were _____.

People come to Cambridge from all over the _____ and they make it a very multicultural city; they come to see the iconic buildings and they find plenty of things to see and do!

Missing words -10

Pronunciation - 10

Confidence - 5